

OFF THE WALL

From the Mitch Diamond Collection

Mitch Diamond hails from the Boston, Massachusetts area and has been a serious blues, r&b, and country music poster collector for many years. Mitch has amassed thousands of pictures, posters, movie lobby cards, Apollo Theatre adverts, handbills, stationery, and musicians' business cards over the years.

Mitch runs the website, www.kardboardkid.com, which has lots of illustrations of posters available for sale and is a good source for those who may want to acquire some for collections and decoration. Mitch is still actively collecting all items in the above categories, so drop him a line via the website if you wish to make contact.

We would like to thank Mitch for allowing us to reproduce just a few posters from his collection. The posters here range from the late 1940s, 1950s, and 1960s – plus the two circular Louis Jordan items are unique flyers for Jordan shows. – Dan Kochakian
